- The PEC discussed the snow removal expenses at the Memorial.

Labor Day Event Discussion

- Commander Deiss reported that the next newsletter will explain the proposed Labor Day event activities and submit four options that the membership can choose from. The options are number 1 do nothing, number 2 do nothing on Labor Day but conduct a raffle mailing, number 3 have a 1-day event, or number 4 have a 2-day event.

Art for Veterans

- The PEC discussed the donation request for the organization that presented at the November meeting. The PEC recommended it be sent to the membership meeting for a vote.

Nominations

- Commander Rick reminded the PEC that the 3 members at large are the nominating committee. The committee should discuss the intentions of each current officer and prepare nomination for those offices that are becoming vacant.

Bowling Outing

- Rick has received the posters and placed them in the local businesses. See Rick if you need a poster.
- Julie Quinn has been contacted for a newspaper article.

Memorial Tribunal

- The tribunal should meet in the next few weeks. Bob Wipf has put together some research lists.

Spring Banquet

- Rick reported that John Hoeft has made arrangements for round tables. We should be able to seat 250 people. The chairs are coming locally for the various churches.
- Jill Hennes will do decorations and table center pieces.

Golf Outing

- Ken Jungwirth reported on the early plans for the golf outing.

Commander Deiss adjourned the meeting at approximately 8:14 PM.
