FROM THE COMMANDER

Greetings Comrades and Friends

The calendar says it is Spring but Winter is slow at letting the weather warm up. With the upcoming warm weather our busy season begins for our Post. Dave Schmude is lining up Poppy distribution sites starting in May. The Sixth District Spring Conference will be held in New Holstein on April 24th.

Our 11th Annual Golf Outing will be May 21st, "Armed Forces Day" and teams are already getting signed up. The following week is the Memorial Day Procession and Ceremony in Omro. There will be more information on these at our next meeting which is Wednesday, April 27th, at Tanner's Tap and Grill 7 pm.

I hope to see you there and enjoy the warm weather to come!

Jack A. Haynes

MEMBERSHIP REPORTS

Hello, I would like to spend more time writing this month, but my time is being spent looking for that lying devil of a groundhog from February 2nd. Be safe. Vondy.

CHAPLAINS CORNER

Spring has been slow in coming this year, and I almost feel guilty writing you from the beautiful island of Galveston Texas. I'll do my best to bring some warmer spring-like weather home with me. Since I have been here two friends of mine have passed away, and I was unable to attend their services. Nevertheless, I have remembered their family and loved ones in my prayers. Times like this remind us of the uncertainty of our own lives. Father in heaven: please shower us with Your mercy and undeserved favor. Let us experience Your peace – the peace that surpasses all human understanding. Be with our friends, family members, and fellow veterans who are in need and draw each of us closer to You every day of our lives. Amen

Chaplain, Ralph Beck
